CHED awards COPC to CSU programs

Fifty-two of 117 programs of Cagayan State University were awarded by the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) a certificate of program compliance (COPC) after a series of evaluation and accreditation visits done starting last year.

Carig – 24 programs

Gonzaga – 5 programs

Andrews – 10 programs

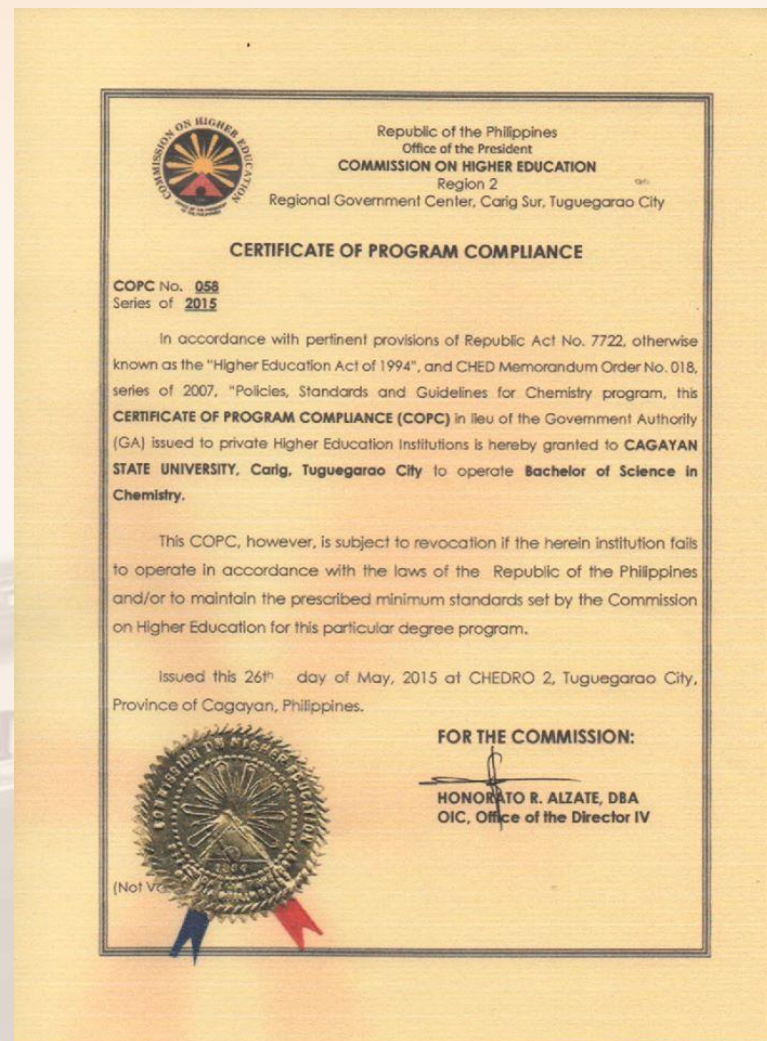

Aparri – 7 programs

Piat – 1 program

Sanchez Mira – 3 programs

La-lo – 2 programs

Other programs are still being evaluated by CHED and will soon be receiving the same compliance certification from the commission.

ON FACULTY AWARDS

CEO Layugan receives CSC Pagasa award

CSU Aparri Campus Executive Officer Dr. Eunice Layugan received the Pagasa award from the Civil Service Commission on September 23, 2015 in a ceremony in Solano, Nueva Vizcaya for her outstanding achievements in her field of specialization.

She is one of the nine semi-finalists in this category nationwide.

2 profs bag awards at PSC research congress

Two faculty members of the Cagayan State University bagged awards during the Philippine Science Consortium (PSC) National Joint Research Congress for Faculty and Students and Seminar Workshop on Manuscript Writing In Publishable Format held at the University of Northern Philippines, Vigan City on Aug.12-14.

Engr. Erwin C. Torio snatched the best paper award when he got the nod of the judges who reviewed his study for the life science-basic non-experimental category.

Tailing him on second place was Prof. Andy L. Catulin for his study: "Bioethanol Production of Non-Edible Macroalgae Using Microbial Fermenters."

ON GENDER AND DEVELOPMENT

72 attend gender issues in the workplace workshop

Some 72 individuals gathered at the College of Information and Computing Sciences (CICS) Amphitheatre for a workshop on gender issues in the workplace workshop on Sept. 1.

Composed of students, teachers, officials, administrative staff and civilian workers in CSU Carig Campus, the participants identified gender issues and problems that they had encountered in the campus and made recommendations that address these issues through individual and group sessions and presentations.

University GAD Office holds forum, workshop on campus-based gender issues

As part of its strategy for gender mainstreaming, the Cagayan State University held a forum and workshop on gender issues at the CSU Andrews Amphitheater on July 24.

The activity aimed to generate a baseline data on office/school-based gender problems encountered by students, faculty members and administrative staff.

The identified issues, according to Dr. Jocelyn Tuscano, university Gender and Development (GAD) focal person, will be used as basis for the conduct of future GAD activities and will form part of a position paper that the GAD office will spearhead for consideration of the administration.

ON STUDENT EVENTS

CSU is champion at Luzonwide HIM conference

Hospitality industry management students bagged awards during the Northern Luzon Annual Convention held on Sept. 25 - 26 at the University of Saint Louis Tuguegarao City.

Students won first place in the scenic Photography contest; second place in the tour package proposal contest; second place in the hospitality and tourism quiz bee; first place in virtual tour guiding tilt; first place in coffee concoction competition.

CSU was declared overall champion.

DR. ROMEO R. QUILANG
President
Cagayan State University

Dear President Quilang:

We are pleased to inform you that Cagayan State University is ELIGIBLE for the grant of Performance-Based Bonus (PBB) for Fiscal Year 2014. The summary of the final IATF assessment result is attached.

To complete the PBB process, may we remind your office to publish the agency MFO Accountability Report Card (MARC-1) and Management Accountability Report Card (MARC-2), in your website or official publication. Please coordinate with the AO 25 Technical Secretariat for the finalization of the said report cards.

We sincerely hope that the PBB strategically contributed to your organizational and employee performance that led to concrete and visible improvements in the delivery of goods and services to the public.

Thank you very much for your usual support.

Sincerely,

RICHARD E. MOYA
Undersecretary, Department of Budget and Management,
