

	Professional Diploma in Building Services Engineering
Entry Requirement	(b) Higher Certificate or (b) Ordinary Certificate or (c) Higher Diploma in related discipline
Student Efforts	(b) For Higher Certificate holders, students undertake nine taught modules. (b) For Ordinary Certificate holders, students undertake additional nine taught modules to the modules undertaken by Higher Certificate holders. i.e. eighteen taught modules. (c) For Higher Diploma holders, students undertake seven taught modules. All modules have written examinations and some have compulsory coursework elements.
Name of Modules	The 9 modules undertaken y Higher Certificate holders are: Interactive Communication and Technical Writing Health and Safety Planning Management I Construction Technology Sustainable Development Human Comfort; Environment Awareness Building Services I Engineering Mathematics Electrical Principles for Building Services Air Conditioning System I The additional 9 modules undertaken by Ordinary Certificate holders are: Project Management Technique and Planning Health and Safety Planning Management II Building Services II Business in the Built Environment Project Design of Lighting within Building Air conditioning Systems II Electrical Installation Applied Acoustics
Level	Undergraduate
Student Efforts	Successful completion of one project report