Preliminary Information

A. BRIEF HISTORY OF THE CAGAYAN STATE UNIVERSITY

As representative of the Province of Cagayan in the Interim Batasang Pambansa, then Minister (later Senate President) Juan Ponce Enrile drafted the Charter of the Cagayan State University that was signed into law as Presidential Decree No. 1436 by President Ferdinand E. Marcos on June 11, 1978. Except for provisions on the composition, powers and selection of the members of the governing board, the Charter has since remained unchanged.

It certainly was not creation out of nothing. Rather, the Charter consolidated existing post-secondary institutions, converting them into a single legal entity. These were the Cagayan Valley College of Arts and Trades at Tuguegarao, the Northern Luzon State College of Agriculture at Piat, the Aparri Institute of Technology, the Cagayan Valley Agricultural College at Lallo, the Bukig National Agricultural and Technical School in Aparri West, the Sanchez Mira Rural Vocational School, the Western Cagayan School of Arts and Trades at Lasam and the Gonzaga National Agricultural and Technical School. It is this fact that explains the present constellation of campuses of the Cagayan State University: Andrews (Caritan), Piat, Lasam, Lallo, Aparri, Sanchez Mira, and Gonzaga. When the university commenced operations, a site in Carig was developed - to which the Central Administration of the university would later transfer from Caritan. It is the Carig site that has evolved, by Board sufferance, into the Carig Campus, although the Central Administration has since returned to the Andrews Campus at Caritan.

While the university was formed from pre-existing institutions that were mainly agricultural and technical, its Charter, Presidential Decree No. 1436, made it exceedingly clear that it was the intendment of the law that the university was to provide “better service in professional and technical training in the arts, sciences, humanities, and technology and in the conduct of scientific research and technological studies”. Without a doubt then and by express legislative mandate, the university was not to be an agricultural, fisheries or technological university - although these remain vital and highly crucial concerns of CSU - but a “comprehensive university”, a university as that term is understood in the academic world!

The first university officials, headed by Dr. Manuel Corpus from the University of the Philippines, and Dr. Joselito Jara, who did a doctorate in educational philosophy from the University of Maryland as Vice-President for Academic Affairs. The officials of the pre-existing colleges that were consolidated into the university were designated as “Campus Deans” and continued to supervise their respective campuses.

It was a truly enlightened decision of the Board of Regents to authorize the opening of a College of Medicine - the very first in the region, and an agreement with what was then the Cagayan Valley Regional Hospital (now the Cagayan Valley Medical Center) made the latter the training hospital of the College of Medicine. The first dean was a nationally recognized neurologist-psychologist, Dr. Gilberto Gamez of the Faculty of Medicine and Surgery of the University of Santo Tomas.

Soon after, other professional courses followed: Medical Technology, Engineering and Liberal Arts courses. Guided by what the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA) has identified as priority courses of the Region, the university has always offered degree programs in the “hard sciences” - mathematics, physics, chemistry, biology - although, especially in regard to chemistry and physics, these have not been popular programs at all. But CSU now has a competent and highly credible corps of professors in these very disciplines!

Dr. Armando Cortes, then Campus Dean of the Aparri Campus, succeeded Dr. Manuel Corpus as University President. At the time, it was the Bureau of Higher Education under the Department of Education, Culture and Sports, that superintended state universities and colleges. Prof. Monserrat Babaran was the Vice-President for Academic Affairs, and together, President Cortes and Prof. Babaran devised a classification and promotion scheme that would subsequently be adopted as a National Compensation Circular, to morph later into what is now National Budget Circular No. 461.

Fr. Ranhilio Aquino who then just finished his term as Vice-Dean of the Graduate School of the University of Santo Tomas and was Executive Vice-President of the Lyceum of Aparri for several years, was designated Vice-President for Academic Affairs. He supervised the accreditation of different programs of CSU with the Accrediting Agency of Chartered Colleges and Universities of the Philippines and instituted a system for the re-training and “re-tooling” of professors of agriculture and fisheries who no longer had enough students to teach, and to enable them to teach subjects of their interest. Some programs of the university were awarded Center of Excellence status, others, Center of Development, aside from higher levels of accreditation.

The Board of Regents authorized the operation of a College of Law, offering the degree Bachelor of Laws, the second law school to open in Tuguegarao City - in fact, in Cagayan.

After President Cortes, Dr. Eleuterio de Leon was designated by then Commission on Higher Education (CHED) Chair Esther Garcia as OIC, Office of the President, a position he held for three years. It was then that authority was bestowed on Campus Executive Officers who were tasked to manage their campuses in behalf of the Central Administration.

The College of Medicine earned recognition as the 10th leading school of medicine in the Philippines owing to creditable performance in the licensure examination. It was quite a feat! Quality medical education was available in the province at the astoundingly low cost of hardly over than twenty-five thousand per semester. The Graduate School was recognized and respected. Leaders and executives of higher education institutions in the region trooped to CSU, to earn their advanced degrees. Law flourished as well under the deanship of Attorney Leticia Aquino who upped Bar passing levels and obtained authority from the Legal Education Board to offer the degree Juris Doctor.

Dr. Roger Perez, who had been CHED Executive Director, was appointed as the next University President, and immediately he set himself to work on giving the university a much-needed face-lift. The Andrews Campus was transformed - given new and striking buildings.

The Administration Building was built to be reminiscent of the Acropolis and the quadrangle, appropriately called “Athena Quadrangle”, the huge five-hundred-million-peso building, the “Athena Building”. Several steps were taken to rationalize campus resources and to improve productivity. President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo graced the inauguration ceremonies of the new buildings, and the descendants of Claude Andrews, who donated the property on which on the original buildings of the university have arisen, were present at the dedication rite. President Perez introduced the Zero-Tuition Fee scheme, and the only fees assessed of students were “fiduciary fees” - miscellaneous fees applied to specific purposes such as medical and dental services, sports, publications and other ends. It was during the presidency of Dr. Perez that many additional academic programs were offered in the University, to include Bachelor of Science (BS) in Accountancy, BS in Hospitality Industry management, BS in Human kinetics, BS in Information technology, BS in Police Administration, and BS in Criminology. President Perez was assisted by Fr. Ranhilio Aquino, as Vice-President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Perfecto Vivit as Vice-President for Administration and Finance and Dr. Rogelio Matalang as Vice-President for Research and Extension. President Perez served two terms.

After Dr. Perez’ term, Dr. Romeo Quilang, who had been President of the Isabela State University, assumed the presidency of the university. It was during this particular administration that efforts were made to revive the links with Accreditation Agency of Chartered Colleges and Universities in the Philippines (AACCUP), and to return the university’s program to the accreditation system. The university also submitted itself to ISO certification and was awarded certified status by Intertek. In the interval between the end of Dr. Quilang’s tenure and the selection of new university president, Dr. Mariden Ventura Cauilan steered university affairs as OIC, Office of the President.

The presidency then passed to Dr. Urdujah Alvarado Tejada who had long been a member of the Board of Regents of the university. A recognized scientist who had risen to the rank of Assistant Secretary of the Department of Science and Technology, Dr. Tejada was clearly the most qualified candidate - offering the university a cohesive program of development.

Almost immediately, she shepherded the university into serious and systematic planning, training and orientation, strong in the belief that no honest-to-goodness development is possible without scientific planning. Significantly, her first activities consisted in putting together a team of qualified and dedicated designated officials of the university, and taking them through seminars on strategic planning and the avoidance of graft and corrupt practices.

This is the third year of President Tejada's term - and we have taken great strides.

NATURE AND CAMPUSES OF THE UNIVERSITY

Section 1 of P.D. 1436 makes clear that from the many pre-existing post-secondary institutions, only one university exists: the Cagayan State University: "hereby merged into a state university that shall be known as the Cagayan State University". The Cagayan State University is not a university system, nor as its campuses 'satellites'. Rather, all the campuses of the university together constitute the one entity known as the Cagayan State University that, by its charter, enjoys juridical personality. Consonant with established jurisprudence, the Cagayan State University is more accurately characterized as a "government instrumentality with corporate functions." This is also clear from the provisions of the Administrative Code of 1987.

Section 2. General Terms Defined.

(10) Instrumentality refers to any agency of the national Government, not integrated within the department framework, vested with special functions or jurisdiction by law, endowed with some if not all corporate powers, administering special funds, and enjoying operational autonomy, usually through a charter. This term includes regulatory agencies, chartered institutions and government-owned or controlled corporations.

Insofar as relations with the Commission on Higher Education are concerned, the Cagayan State University's governing board is the CHED Chair, and when its governing board decides on the opening of new courses and programs, such courses and programs must comply with policies and standards of the Commission on Higher Education. Regulatory authority over the university is exercised by its governing board, this being clearly provided for under R.A.8292.

6. Policies and Procedures for Mandatory Random Drug Testing for Students in Cagayan State University

RATIONALE

The drug problem in the Philippines continues to remain a serious national concern that permeates both the public and private sectors not only as a security issue, but also as a health concern that affects the social, emotional, psychological, as well as the economic well-being of the citizenry. (CMO 18, s.2018)

According to the Dangerous Drug Board's 2015 Nationwide Survey on the Nature and Extent of Drug Abuse in the Philippines released in September 2016, there are around 1.8 million drug users in the Philippines, around 2.3 percent of the population aged 18 to 69, while 4.8 million Filipinos have used illegal drugs at least once in their lives. (<https://www.pids.gov.ph/pids-in-the-news/1762>)

The Philippine Government recognizes the primary responsibility of the family and the complimentary role of the educational institutions and parents for the education and awareness of its members on the ill-effects of dangerous drugs. Hence, all Universities are enjoined to adopt programs on drug prevention among the students and to ensure a drug-free school environment.

Cagayan State University in the exercise of its academic freedom, adopts the mandatory random drug testing for its students in compliance with CMO No. 18, series of 2018.

OBJECTIVES

1. Promote a “drug free” campus and further the legitimate interest of the government in preventing and deterring dangerous drug use among the youth;
2. Instill in the minds of the students that dangerous drugs not only interfere in their ability to learn but also disrupt the teaching environment;
3. Strengthen the collaborative efforts of concerned agencies (Dangerous Drugs Board (DDB), Department of Health (DOH), Philippine National Police (PNP), and Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency (PDEA) against the use of illegal drugs and the treatment of dangerous drug users and dependents.
4. Establish a stronger partnership between the government and HEIs in providing programs and activities intended to facilitate the holistic and well-rounded student development; and

5. Ensure that drug testing policies of the University are reasonable to guarantee that the fundamental rights of students are protected.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

1. The University through the Office of Student Development and Welfare in coordination with the University Student Council Federation and Campus Student Council shall present during consultation with students the policies on mandatory random drug testing. 8. Only current students (existing and currently enrolled) shall undergo random drug testing and the drug testing expense shall be borne by the University as mandated in Article III, Section 36(c) of the Republic Act 9165.
9. The total sample size of students to be subjected for random drug testing will be at least 2% of the total enrollment of each campus identified through stratified random sampling (per year level/per course/per college/per campus)
10. The result of the drug test issued by the partner Drug Testing Center shall be directly forwarded to the Office of Student Development and Welfare (OSDW) and shall be treated with utmost confidentiality. However, for those confirmed positive, the OSDW shall forward the list to the University Guidance Office for appropriate intervention.

University Hymn

Music and Lyrics: Fr. Ranhilio Callangan Aquino

Fount of our visions, cradle of our dreams,
well-spring of the fondest hopes for the youth of this our vale.
God bless you, our University
God go before you always.
That we your sons and daughters
be servants of truth
Guardians of justice and instruments of love
Rise without fear for our freedoms.
Search without ceasing for all that is true.
God be with you, our cherished CSU,
May His light ever unfold you.

University March

Sa luntiang lambak ng Cagayan
Sumilang ang isang pamantasan
Duyan ng mga kabataan
Sagot tuklas sa karunungan
Panatilihin ang pag-unlad
Minamahal naming CSU
Turo't sining mo ay ilahad
Ang bukas naming ay hawak mo.
Dinggin tawag ng kaunlaran
Isip kabataa'y lawakan
Saliksik pasuri'y tibayan
Buhay at bayan ay yayaman
Bathalang gabay ng CSU
Buksang liwanag ang landas mo
Murang isipa'y bigyang payo
Lakad naming ay taas noo.
