INTERNATIONALIZATION

CHED-APPROVED INTERNATIONAL LINKAGES

In a landmark development, CSU secured CHED Regional Office II's approval for its Memoranda of Understanding and Agreement with foreign institutions from India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Taiwan, Canada, the USA, Thailand, and Oman. These include top universities such as Kansas State University (USA), Saint Mary's University (Canada), Universiti Teknologi Mara (Malaysia), and several Taiwan-based institutions. The international agreements pave the way for student and faculty exchanges, collaborative research, and shared academic resources—positioning CSU as a dynamic player in global education.

PARTNERSHIP & RESOURCE MOBILIZATION

In a key initiative aligning with CSU Lallo's agricultural niche, the university signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Filipino Coffee Institute to establish the Filipino Coffee Institute-CSU and the International Coffee Research and Development Center. This partnership aims to develop a model coffee farm for practical student training and sustainable farming demonstrations. Beyond land use and skill development, the collaboration seeks to raise coffee production standards nationwide and boost the global competitiveness of Philippine coffee through shared expertise, research, and innovation.

GALLERY OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS

ACADEMIC AND STUDENT AFFAIRS EXCELLENCE

CSU's academic life was enriched through meaningful ceremonies and student development programs. The 23rd Academic Convocation of the College of Law featured Atty. Kristina Conti, who inspired graduates to serve with justice and integrity. The university also recognized outstanding student research through the Best Undergraduate Thesis and Mentor Awards. Furthermore, over 300 student leaders convened for the 42nd CSU Student Congress, while hundreds of scholars participated in the Barkada League 2025 to promote camaraderie and wellness through sports.

ADVANCES IN RESEARCH, INNOVATION, AND PARTNERSHIPS

CSU strengthened its research portfolio through impactful collaborations and award-winning projects. Its eTrike initiative, recognized with the EPIC Award by DOST-PCIEERD, demonstrated excellence in project execution. The Product Development and Training Center (PDTC) hosted its 2nd In-House Review to guide innovations toward commercialization. CSU forged partnerships to boost regional relevance, including studies on outmigration with CPD II and flood risk mitigation with DEPDev. Other notable endeavors include the CSU-Mabuwaya water documentary project, the Ivatan house roofing cultural integration initiative in Batanes, and the launch of the Filipino Coffee Institute-CSU partnership to support national coffee development.

INSTITUTIONAL RECOGNITION AND INTERNATIONALIZATION

CSU solidified its standing as a quality-driven and globally competitive university. It achieved ISO 9001:2015 certification for all nine campuses and received Level III Institutional Accreditation from AACCUP for its Andrews and Carig campuses. CSU also improved its rank in the Times Higher Education (THE) Impact Rankings and was recognized by uniRank as one of the top institutions in Region II. As part of a CHED-led regional initiative, CSU is spearheading capacity-building programs to uplift the international visibility of local HEIs.

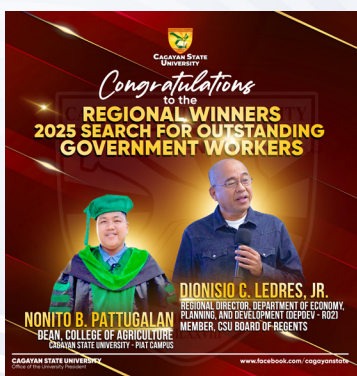

INFRASTRUCTURE AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Access to quality education was further enhanced by the expansion of CSU's physical footprint and community services. The groundbreaking of the CSU Baggao Extension Campus signaled a major step in decentralizing higher education. CSU-Piat began constructing a new TVET building to strengthen technical-vocational programs, while CSU-Gonzaga launched Tangkiran Mart—a convenience facility designed to serve both students and staff.

ADMINISTRATIVE MILESTONES AND STAFF WELFARE

In governance, CSU demonstrated transparency and alignment with national goals through its FY 2026 budget proposal at the DBM Region II hearing. It also conducted strategic planning through joint sessions of the Administrative and RDE Councils. In a historic move, CSU implemented an HMO medical benefits package for its personnel through a partnership with Kaiser International—making it the first government agency in Region II to do so. The university likewise celebrated its support staff during National Education Personnel Day and reaffirmed its financial compliance during the COA Exit Conference.

INDIVIDUAL EXCELLENCE AND NATIONAL RECOGNITION

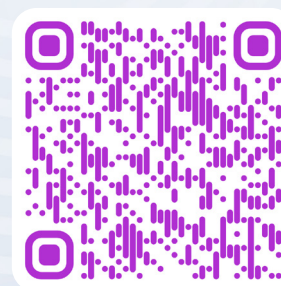

Dr. Julius Capili, Dean of the Graduate School and CAHS, emerged as Champion in the ASEAN MedTech Research Competition, showcasing CSU's research caliber on the international stage. Additionally, two CSU community members—Director Dionisio Ledres and Prof. Nonito Pattugalan—were recognized as CSC Pagasa Award regional winners for their exemplary public service.
