Conditions) shall determine the Best, Better, and Good Campuses. The ranking and distribution to be followed is the one provided for by IATF MC 2019-01:

- Top 10% - Best Campus (to receive 65% of monthly salary)
- Next 25% - Better Campus (to receive 57% of monthly salary)
- Next 65% - Good Campus (to receive 50% of monthly salary)

Applying this system, 10% of eight (8) campuses is 0.8 or 1 best campus, 25% of eight is 2 better campuses, and 65% shall cover the rest of the campuses classified as good delivery units.

7. The Summary of Accomplishments, Rating and Ranking of Campuses shall be presented in the Form A — 1 Report of the University required by the Task Force for submission and assessment. The summary shall also be uploaded in the university website and disseminated using other possible channels or platforms of communication.
8. All concerns and clarifications in regard to the rating and ranking shall be submitted in writing to the University Performance Management Committee (UPMC), the group tasked to serve as the Grievance Group for PBB, who shall review the issues and complaints and make proper recommendation/s within 15 calendar days upon receipt of the said complaint. The decision of the UPMC shall be final and executory.
